

Friday 22 June, 2018 Hebden Bridge Town Hall,
St. George's Street, HX7 7BY

- 8.45 Registration
- 9.15 Welcome & Introduction
- 9.20 'Calder' Film: Residents' Flood Stories, part1
- 9.30 Session 1:
- Stephen Curry, Chair UCVR - Economic Impact Assessment
- Fiona Thurlbeck MBE, Service Lead Business and Skills, Calderdale MBC. - Business Resilience – Calderdale MBC's Support
- Giles Dring, Independent IT Consultant. Planning for the worst - an approach to assessing and containing risks.
- Ian Gibbs, Lead for Task Group 2 of the DEFRA round table, which is looking at embedding resilience in Small Businesses - Integrating resilience into insurers, modelling and pricing procedures. (TBC)
- Katie Kimber, Project Lead Watermark Flood Fund - Watermark Flood Fund and FloodSave - Community self-insurance initiatives.
- Panel Q&A
- 11.10 Break
- 11.25 Session 2:
- 'Calder' Film part 2
- Sue Slater, local business owner. A personal story of resilience - an interview by Esther Waite, Organisational Consultant
- Kirsten Fussing, Public Health Calderdale. Wellbeing in flood hit communities: A Public Health perspective
- Jonny Richardson Glenn, Chief Officer, Calderdale Wellbeing (Healthy Minds). Todmorden Wellbeing: building emotional resilience
- 12.30 LUNCH
- 13.30 Session 3:
- 'Calder' Film part 3
- Dr Ute Kelly, Lecturer in Peace Studies, University of Bradford. Talking about the Boxing Day floods - what stories do we tell, and what difference does it make?
- Avril South and Debbie Milner, Calderdale Catchment Engagement Co-ordinators, Environment Agency. Community Engagement: Policy, Practice and local outcomes – an interview by Katherine Wackerbarth, UCVR
- Ed Barsley, Founder and Director, The Environmental Design Studio. Designing for Flood Resilience
- Fred London, Partner at JTP. The Home for All Seasons
- 15.00 Break
- 15.15 Panel Q&A
- Closing remarks
- 16.00 Conference ends.
- Optional tour of Mytholmroyd Flood alleviation works and Redacre Growing Project, a community led development.